

Safety and health incident and statistical reporting for metalliferous mines and quarries

This context diagram shows your reporting and notification obligations for incidents and statistics at metalliferous mines and quarries.

Note:

- You must notify an inspector of mines if certain serious accidents or high-potential incidents occur at your metalliferous mine or quarry.
- In addition, you must provide individual and summary incident reports as well as safety and health census information.

Further information:

<https://www.business.qld.gov.au/industry/mining/applications-compliance/lodging-statutory-reports>