

Petroleum and gas—notifiable road use

This context diagram shows your notification obligations for notifiable road use.

Note:

- You must submit a range of notices before you begin your exploration or mining activities.
- This includes notifying the public road authority before you use roads to transport equipment or petroleum.
- Notifiable road use notices apply to all resource holders.

Further information:

<https://www.business.qld.gov.au/industry/mining/applications-compliance/lodging-statutory-reports>