

Safety and health boreholes and drilling reporting for coal mines

This context diagram shows your reporting and notification obligations for exploration drilling activities and abandoned boreholes.

Note:

- Site senior executives and operators of coal mines must lodge notices and reports about exploration drilling activities and abandoned boreholes.

Further information:

<https://www.business.qld.gov.au/industry/mining/applications-compliance/lodging-statutory-reports>