

Safety and health incident and statistical reporting for coal mines

This context diagram shows your reporting and notification obligations for incidents and statistics at coal mines.

Note:

- You must notify an inspector of mines if certain serious accidents or high-potential incidents occur at your coal mine.
- In addition, you must provide individual and summary incident reports as well as safety and health census information.

Further information:

<https://www.business.qld.gov.au/industry/mining/applications-compliance/lodging-statutory-reports>