

Drilling, completion, and abandonment of petroleum wells

This context diagram shows your reporting and notification obligations for drilling, completion, and abandonment of petroleum wells.

Note:

- You must notify us before you start drilling a petroleum well and when you complete drilling.
- You must also notify us and provide a report if you decommission or abandon the well.
- Daily drilling reports are required to be collected daily and lodged with the Well Completion report.

Further information:

<https://www.business.qld.gov.au/industry/mining/applications-compliance/lodging-statutory-reports>

