

Safety and health statutory appointments for metalliferous mines

This context diagram shows your reporting and notification obligations for statutory appointments.

Note:

- You must notify us about the holders of statutory positions (e.g. site senior executive).
- You must notify us before starting operations, when an appointment has been made, or when an appointment changes.
- In addition, we request that you notify us of appointments for control of electrical work and winding operations.

Further information:

<https://www.business.qld.gov.au/industry/mining/applications-compliance/lodging-statutory-reports>