

Gifts and benefits register - Department of Natural Resources, Mines and Energy

This register shows gifts and benefits valued at more than $150 that have been given and received by Department of Natural Resources, Mines and Energy and its employees. This may include multiple gifts or benefits, where their total value exceeds $150 in a financial year. The register is updated each quarter.

July - September 2019

Date:	Description of Gift or Benefit	Amt $ (excl GST)	Name of Donor	Name of Recipient	Reason giving the gift is of benefit to the Queensland Community	Gift was: a) Retained by employee; b) Retained by agency; c) Not retained
Gift Received 7/06/2019	Ticket - Climate Change and Economics: Al Gore	175.00	Australian Energy Market Operator (AEMO)	Kathie Standen, Deputy Director-General	Accepting this gift is of benefit to the Queensland community because attendees were able to better understand the impacts of climate change and hear what actions governments are taking to deliver improved environmental and economic outcomes for future generations.	Retained by employee
Gift Received 17/06/2019	Ticket - CEDA 2019 State Budget Address	175.00	Energy Queensland (EQL)	Kathie Standen, Deputy Director-General	Accepting this gift is of benefit to the Queensland community because attendees were able to hear the rationale behind budget decisions and the forward economic development strategies that will determine Queensland's growth.	Retained by employee
Gift Received 3/08/2019	Dinner guest at 2019 QLD WaterAid Ball	330.00	Mike Foster, Manager Public Relations, Seqwater	Linda Dobe, Deputy Director-General	As DDG, NR I have oversight of the governance of the GOCS such as Seqwater and represent the interests of the shareholding Minister, Dr Lynham. Events such as Qld WaterAid Ball provide a unique opportunity for the Department to engage not only with our GOCS, but also the broader water industry to ensure Government is listening and responding to issues within the community and maintaining strong, productive relationships. I attended this event on my own, representing James Purtill as he could not attend.	Retained by employee